Item 8.01 Other Events.

As previously disclosed, Jaguar Health, Inc. (the “Company”) offered to provide crofelemer to the National Institute of Allergy and Infectious Diseases (“NIAID”) for anti-viral screening against SARS-CoV-2. On May 27, 2020, Napo Pharmaceuticals, Inc. (“Napo”), the Company’s wholly-owned subsidiary, received notification from NIAID that Napo’s request for testing crofelemer has been approved and that crofelemer will be tested against five different viruses, one of which is SARS-CoV-2. For clarity, this is not Mytesi finished product (i.e. delayed release tablets) and the testing does not involve any human studies.

This Current Report on Form 8-K contains “forward-looking” statements within the meaning of Section 27A of the Securities Act of 1933 and Section 21E of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, including the statement related to the expectation that NIAID will test crofelemer against five different viruses. The words “may,” “will,” “could,” “would,” “should,” “expect,” “intend,” “plan,” “anticipate,” “believe,” “estimate,” “predict,” “project,” “potential,” “continue,” “ongoing” and similar expressions are intended to identify forward-looking statements, although not all forward-looking statements contain these identifying words. While the Company believes its plans, intentions and expectations reflected in those forward-looking statements are reasonable, these plans, intentions or expectations may not be achieved. The Company’s actual results, performance or achievements could differ materially from those contemplated, expressed or implied by the forward-looking statements. For information about the factors that could cause such differences, please refer to the Company’s Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2019, including the information discussed under the captions “Item 1 Business,” “Item 1A. Risk Factors” and “Item 7 Management’s Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations,” as well as the Company’s various other filings with the SEC. Given these uncertainties, you should not place undue reliance on these forward-looking statements. The Company assumes no obligation to update any forward-looking statement.
